

Greetings!

Are you making the most of your contract benefits? As a member of ESU Coordinating Council (AEPA), you have access to all the exceptional products and services Demco offers — at a better price!

Demco is a pre-approved ESU Coordinating Council (AEPA) vendor, meaning you won't have to go through a tedious bid process to meet district requirements. We have deep roots around the world from our hometown schools to global institutions. After nearly 120 years of service, we've developed an unmatched understanding of what educators need, offering:

- An extensive selection of furniture to meet your needs in all areas of your school
- Expert space design, project management and installation services specializing in creating effective, engaging learning environments
- Support from a dedicated Demco representative to help facilitate key conversations

We look forward to connecting and helping you make the most of what Demco has to offer.
